ABOUT THE VENUE

Birjhora Mahavidyalaya, Bongaigaon established in 1986, has been rendering its services to the entire North East India for last 25 years and producing numerous luminaries, placed across the world today. The college is affiliated to the Gauhati University, recognised by Govt. of Assam and UGC & Accredited with B grade by NAAC. To mark the completion of 25 years (Silver Jubilee Year 2011) of existence of the college, a National Seminar has been organised

The college is situated in scenic beauty landscape, and is only 8 km drive from New Bongaigaon Railway Station (NBQ) and 4 km from Bongaigaon Railway Station (BNG). The distance from LGB Air Port, Borjhar, Guwahati is about 185 km.

The Department of Zoology which was started in the same year has been guiding and preparing the students of this region up to the mark to provide ample scope after graduation to establish themselves at National and International level.

The temperature of Bongaigaon in the month of January ranges in between 10°C-20°C.

FOODS:

Working lunch and tea between the academic sessions will be provided by the Organizers.
